

FOR MEDIA

Indiana Debate Commission

U.S. Senate Republican Primary Debate

Tuesday, April 20, 2010

8:00 p.m. EDT

Satellite Information for Broadcasters

C-Band, analog:

AMC3, C 20 (36mhz)

Position: 87 degrees west

Uplink frequency: 6235 MHz Horizontal

Downlink frequency: 4100 MHz Vertical

Audio: 6.2 and 6.8

Event Begin: 19:30 EDT

Event End: 21:00 EDT

Event Name: Indiana U.S. Senate Primary Debate

For engineering questions prior to the debate, e-mail WFYI Engineering Vice President Steve Jensen at sjensen@wfyi.org or call 317-614-0412

For transmission assistance the night of the debate, contact:
WFYI Master Control at 317-614-0430 (after 5 p.m. and prior to the debate)

Streaming Web Information

Stipulations for all organizations wishing to host a live stream of the debate on the Indiana Debate Commission Web site.

The live stream of the debate should be placed on a separate flat page.

The following text, with a live link to the Indiana Debate Commission Web site, www.indianadebatecommission.com, must be included on the page underneath the window that contains the streaming video:

PUTTING VOTERS FIRST

The U.S. Senate debate is presented by the Indiana Debate Commission, a non-profit, non-partisan volunteer organization established for the sole purpose of providing Hoosiers with voter-oriented debates in key election races. Our mission is to sponsor and produce debates that are open, unbiased and transparent, making the public interest its primary focus. <http://www.indianadebatecommission.com/>

PUTTING VOTERS FIRST